

I urge you to be as distraught about media consolidation as am I and many people in this country.

This latest example of abuse, Sinclair Broadcast Group's requiring 62 stations to pre-empt regular programming to show a clearly partisan attack against a presidential candidate weeks before a national election is just what we get when we don't pay attention. It doesn't matter which candidate, this is a dangerous precedent.

The airwaves belong to the people--we the people--of the United States and we rent them to the corporations. You regulate this industry and grant licenses for us.

Please don't sell out our democracy.
